

Libra

The Sign of Sensuality

Beautiful Charming Gentle Tactile

Libra represents a natural love and hope and the Scales symbolize the balance of life! Air signifies a universal freedom, and Venus offers the planetary influence of love and beauty! Librans are such a captivating sign! Not only are they alluring, they are also lovely, calming, dignified, and elegant! They offer us tranquility within their harmony, and they represent balance, refinement and appreciation.

Librans simply ooze charm and can be truly stunning in appearance! They are also extremely social and make great hosts. It gives them a chance to gossip and find out exactly what is going on amongst their groups of friends and acquaintances. They are well suited to anything to do with style, beauty, and the artistic fields. They also make great organizers and are able to handle responsibilities with aplomb!

Librans are the ultimate diplomats. They have excellent analytical powers, and they also know how to dress to impress! Their winning style is perfectly poised within their calm persuasion, and they can take our breath away with ease. Librans can also be extremely understanding when we need them to be!

Librans believe in the concept of unity on Earth, which they apply naturally when working with a group. They understand that we all make mistakes. They have the ability to see both sides of every situation, hand out forgiveness, and move forward. They remain neutral until they eventually announce their "correct" stance on tricky situations. Once decided, it will prove difficult to persuade them otherwise! They may be sweet and soft, but they are no pushovers! They can be ever so frustratingly stubborn!

Librans are honest, honorable, and dependable! They have a very keen insight, and are practical enough to acknowledge their own shortcomings. They are also prepared to take blame deservedly when appropriate. Not many signs have this ability. No wonder it is considered such a balanced sign!

A Libran's passion and love is very real! They are able to levitate to a higher ground with their partner through honest and loving communication. If a Libran loves you, do not take them for granted. They do not like to be tested. Librans really do not ask for much! All they really want is you to love them back!

Librans shine brightest with Good Karma when they are insightful, artistic, charismatic and fair!
