

The Monkey

The Sign of Esprit

Adaptable Desirable Fanciful Witty

The Monkey is the shrewdest of all the eastern zodiac signs. The versatile and innovative Monkey is one strategic intellectual and effervescent performer, who loves to take centre stage. Once they have you captivated, it is hard to resist finding out just how they get away with their antics. People born in the year of the Monkey are clever, skilful, amazingly inventive, and they like to do things in their own unique way!

It is said that this sign is the court jester and most resourceful of the eastern zodiac. No matter what the predicament, the elusive Monkey always jumps to a safer tree for a new view on life. Their uncanny ability to solve any problem at hand usually guides them to safety. They are good learners, multi skilled, and adaptable to many situations. Their quest for knowledge is easily attained because they have an unsurpassed intellect combined with a superb memory. What a combination for the super smart Monkey!

Both agile and amusing, the Monkey gets what it wants with a certain ease. Monkeys are also extremely thrifty with money and super efficient in business. They can often create very novel deals. Monkeys also have lots of confidence and a winning flair. One thing is for sure, the Monkey always land on its feet!

Monkeys may be extremely brilliant communicators, yet occasionally they may seem quite difficult to comprehend. This is probably because they have already devised a cunning plan and may not wish to bother to explain it to anyone else! The fact that Monkeys are such successful characters makes them susceptible to being a little aloof at times. Monkeys still need to come down to earth every now and then!

The agile and fun loving Monkey can easily be distracted from being well behaved, and will have no trouble at all getting up to some new mischief. Fun and adventure is so natural for them, they can easily vanish to get up to some extra high jinx. Cheeky Monkeys! They love being badly behaved it seems, and they simply love the fact they can get away with it! Distractions can also cost them when they miss opportunities. If they can control their temptations, their curiosity and genius should serve them well in their quests.

Monkeys just love to play. No matter what antics the Monkey has been up to though, the Monkey will always come home at the end of the day, or the day after! Monkeys are social, warmhearted, and very supportive to loved ones. They make for long lasting friends and care greatly for those closest to them!

Monkeys shine brightest with Good Karma when they are original, astonishing, clever and cheeky!
