

The Rabbit

The Sign of Purity

Cautious Eternal Tactful Virtuous

The Rabbit (also known as the Cat) is an extremely inventive and insightful character. Their meek and gentle exterior fits them perfectly, as they are one of the most virtuous of the zodiac signs. The charming and peaceful Rabbit seeks a harmonious life. They offer us a sense of unique serenity and purity. The year of the Rabbit also signifies good fortune in Chinese mythology!

Rabbits are cautious by nature, so they do not rush into new experiences that easily. Physically, Rabbits may appear vulnerable, but you will have to catch one first. They know how to protect themselves and their loved ones, and they are experts in survival. They have a jump to safety option, and Rabbits always land where happiness abounds. Rabbits really do prefer tranquility!

These creatures attain their needs with an instinctive strategy and precision. If they have to be utterly scrupulous, then so be it! It is just another day's work for them. Do not let their soft and cuddly exterior fool you in matters of commerce. Our Rabbit friends have lots of plots ticking over in their mind. There is nothing personal in business for the extremely clever and shrewd Rabbit.

Rabbits are diligent, wise, have a keen eye for detail, and are more often than not good judges of character. They are also perceptive and will often be pragmatic in order to diffuse any foreseeable disagreement. If trouble brews however, they may well take full advantage and benefit from it.

Those born in Rabbit years may occasionally consider themselves a cut above the rest, however their natural earthy connection keeps them humble most of the time. They may find that with a little more humanitarianism, their poise and intelligence will serve them well in their successes!

Our dear Rabbit friends will crave freedom from time to time, and they know they can quickly jump away to greener pastures anytime they choose. A sense of safety is required for Rabbits to relax, as they prefer not to tolerate disruptions. Rabbits cannot stand objectionable and unnecessary interruptions to their calm and tranquil demeanor. They have no need for dramas!

Rabbits shine brightest with Good Karma when they are philosophical, artistic and compassionate!

KarmaHQ.com

© 2008 all rights reserved