Sagittarians are enthusiastic, frank, energetic, and blessed with hearts of gold! They have an affable and energetic personality when in top form, and are fantastic fun to be with. They understand that life is not always rosy, and that it takes time to resolve difficulties. They also know just how to cheer us up!

Sagittarians are respectable, honest, genuine, and loyal to a just cause! They fight for justice and are extremely honorable! They are not frightened of taking a higher or more ethical stance when necessary. They also defend their concepts, and push to have things done the best way, which of course, is their way. However, if they deem it more beneficial to change their current alliances, they will effect changes to best suit their success. They may be loyal to a cause, but they can also be calculating opportunists!

Sagittarians are usually career orientated and extremely ambitious. They have iron wills and an open mind in regard to new concepts. They choose their challenges carefully, and execute them with an extraordinary focus. Their symbol is the Archer after all! They think fast, speak their minds, and are a welcome addition to any successful team. They know how to get a job done, and they do not like delays!

Sagittarians can be restless souls at times. They need a challenge! The best thing for them to do is tackle something involving variety, definitely not anything ordinarily boring! They are apt at commerce, as long as it is interesting and worthwhile for them. Sagittarians are naturally enterprising and can manage their money with ease. Just as well really, because some of them really know how to spend it!

As quick tempered as they may be, we should never forget that this sign is a solid and supportive rock to friends in need! One of their most endearing qualities is caring! They may well be short and succinct with those that let them down, but they are also capable of great forgiveness and relish looking after loved ones. They make for fun filled friends, great entertainers, caring parents, and sensual partners!

Sagittarians shine brightest with Good Karma when they are intuitive, responsible, aspiring and unusual!
