The Sign of Patience

Clever Composed Enduring Persistent

Taurus represents a strong and silent beauty! The Bull symbolizes determination and logic! Earth signifies a natural and nurturing nature, and Venus is the planet of acceptance and love. A Taurus friend is without a doubt an invaluable asset to have in a life. Not only are they extra dependable and capable to the extreme, they are also honest, faithful, and loyal! They make for rock solid citizens in fact!

Taureans are prepared to work hard to achieve from their own efforts. They make for great employees and business partners. Trust is not given unless warranted, but once given, Taureans will not let you down. No wonder they are so easily loved and admired! These beautiful characters may also wish to attain a lifetime of security, comfort, and indulgence. Whether it is something extravagant for their home, or the best champagne when a celebration is called for, Taurus people know how to enjoy life!

These trusting rocks of strength are also silently powerful. When pushed too far, their daunting silence will often announce their displeasure. If you accidentally upset a Taurus, they can forgive you upon your apology. If you upset one deliberately however, the flip side is obvious; it is extremely difficult to stop an enraged Bull. They can be an ultimate force to be reckoned with and are absolutely fearless in defense!

Taureans may not believe this, but they have the gift of divine patience! There is an inner calm within them which serves us all well. Anyone who has one for a friend should vouch for their faithful solidity! Taurus people who understand that their efforts can bring so much more to others will see just how more wonderful their life can be! This western astrology sign is also one of earth's closest! Simplicity is a beautiful thing when nature works its magical ways. Beauty itself is also great driving force for them!

Taureans make great partners and love lots of intimacy. They especially enjoy a romance and the sexual adventures that come with it. They are very supportive to friends and family. Respect is something they receive easily because they do not let the team down! Given their divine earth connection, There is no limit to their success! If a Taurus person simply remains grounded, onward and upward shall they be!

Taureans shine brightest with Good Karma when they are sensual, imaginative, versatile and brilliant!
